Re: Weekes v. Paper Mart, Inc.
Case No. 1:21-cv-10582-RA

Dear Judge Abrams:

On behalf of defendant Paper Mart, Inc. (“Paper Mart”), this letter-motion is respectfully submitted pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b) for the entry of an order dismissing the above-captioned civil action against Paper Mart with prejudice. Plaintiff Robert Weekes (“Plaintiff”) has advised Paper Mart that he will not pursue this action against Paper Mart and consented to relief requested by Paper Mart.

On December 10, 2021, Plaintiff commenced this civil action by filing a complaint, naming Paper Mart as the sole defendant. [ECF No. 1]. Counsel for Paper Mart subsequently informed counsel for Plaintiff that he had named the wrong party as the defendant, as Paper Mart does not own or conduct business through the website identified in his complaint, and asked him to voluntarily dismiss Plaintiff’s claims against Paper Mart.

On January 21, 2022, counsel for Plaintiff acknowledged that “[y]our client was incorrectly named as the defendant in this lawsuit” and stated that Plaintiff “consider[s] the matter resolved as to your client” based on his filing of an amended complaint naming a different defendant. [Declaration of Alexander S. Firsichbaum (“Firsichbaum Decl.”), Exh. A; see ECF No. 7]. Notwithstanding this filing, however, Paper Mart remains identified as an active defendant on the docket sheet for this civil action and the docket sheet does not formally reflect a final disposition of the claims asserted against Paper Mart in the complaint commencing this civil action. Accordingly, counsel for Paper Mart requested that Plaintiff consent to the dismissal with prejudice of this civil action as against Defendant Paper Mart. Plaintiff has consented to this requested relief. [Firsichbaum Decl., Exh. B].

For these reasons, Paper Mart respectfully requests the entry of an order formally dismissing this civil action against Paper Mart, Inc. with prejudice.

Respectfully submitted,
